Présentation de l'éditeur

In over 200 full-color images, acclaimed photographers James and Karla Murray provide panoramic proof that there is much more to Miami than South Beach and Spring Break. With its 25-year history, graffiti in Miami is wilder, more creative, and vibrant than in most other cities throughout the world. Covering everything from "permission graff" to "bombing," from the "penits" to the "heavens," along with insightful quotes from the scene's main proponents, this is the most extensive survey of this transient art form to date in one of America's most fascinating and diverse urban centers. Biographie de l'auteur

JAMES and KARLA MURRAY are professional photographers and authors. Their books include Broken Windows, Burning New York and Store Front: The Disappearing Face of New York. They live and work in Florida and New York, where their photos have been exhibited at the Brooklyn Historical Society and the New-York Historical Society.
